

GENERAL PREMIUM RULES

Marias Fair Office (406) 434-2692

1. The Marias Fair Board reserves the right to interpret all rules and regulations and to settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, arising out of and not covered by them.
2. Any person who violates any of the following or special rules published in the premium list will forfeit all privileges and premiums and may be subject to such penalty as ordered by the Marias Fair Board.
3. The Marias Fair Board, Toole County, or employees or agents thereof will assume NO liability for injury, loss or damage sustained by person, property or livestock of any exhibitors, concessionaire or spectator.
Every animal and article upon the grounds shall be under the control of the fair management.
4. Management will put forth every effort to ensure the safety of exhibitors' articles after their arrival, but in no case will it be responsible for loss or damage which may occur while in transit or during the time of exhibition.
5. All open class exhibitors will abide by the general premium rules and regulations as well as those under each department.
6. Entries must be made on Marias Fair entry blanks. Make sure you give your name, full address and phone. Use correct division, class, lot numbers and exact wording for each exhibit.
7. Livestock fees will be assessed on cattle, sheep, and goats. Fees are due at time of entry.
8. Premiums money paid out in each class will be listed at the beginning of every department unless otherwise stated in the class or lot.
9. Premium money is distributed at the fair office after the department's judges' books are returned to the premium office and the placing are calculated.
10. Where there is but one exhibitor in a lot the judge shall award only one premium. There is no limit to the number of animals or items an exhibitor may enter per class.
If competition is from only one exhibitor, premiums will be paid on the first place only.
11. Superintendents reserve the right to reject unworthy entries of any nature.
12. Agreement to all conditions and regulations here stated are understood when the exhibitor submits their entry.
